

Jimmy Kimmel
Illinois workNet Center - Enfield
Case Manager: Nelda Booker

James was laid off from his job in 2008. He wanted to get a degree in Diesel Equipment Technology in order to get a job and to better himself and his family.

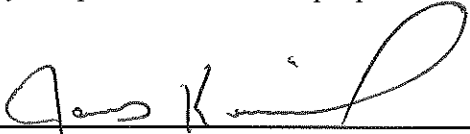

He came to the Wabash Area Development office in search of assistance with his Tuition/Books/Fees. James worked hard in his studies by maintaining straight A's and 1 B. James was very dedicated in his participation in the Dislocated Worker Program and with his studies.

He proved himself at Dee Drilling, where he performed his internship, and they hired him full time as soon as he graduated in May 2011.
